

DON BOSCO SCHOOL, KOKAR, RANCHI

Class – III

SUBJECT: Moral Science

Moral science teaches us the moral values. It teaches us certain ways and behavior we have got to follow in order to mingle (to mix with other things or people) and get alone in society in order to keep up our relationship. It mostly rules and procedures that shows justice towards the society.

Chapter 1: Being Quiet

Introduction :- Children we always use to talk, watch TV, sing or laugh. Today will practice to keep quiet for sometimes. Now everybody should keep quiet for only 5 minutes. After 5 minutes. How do you feel? Tell me atleast one-one point. For this practice everybody read lesson 1.

Exercise – I

Write True or False for these statements:-

- | | |
|--|-------|
| 1) Ali, Raj, Preet, and Sam were good at studies. | True |
| 2) The boys were good at sports. | True |
| 3) Each boy thought he was the best. | True |
| 4) The boys said nothing when the candle went out. | False |
| 5) The boys passed the test. | False |

Exercise – II

Let us do: – (Note do it by yourself because each will have different answers)

Exercise – III

Answer the following questions:- [Note everybody must write question and answer because it is not given in the book]

a) Why should we be quiet?

Ans. We should be quiet to pay attention, to listen carefully and understand in better way.

b) In the school when we should be quiet?

Ans. In the school, in the classroom, in the assembly, in the principal office. We should be quiet.

c) Among Ali, Raj, Preet and Sam, who started talking?

Ans. Among Ali, Raj, Preet and Sam, Preet started talking.

d) What did the teacher say to the students?

Ans. The teacher said to the students "Tomorrow you'll spend the night in my tent come with your books after dinner. But from the time you enter my tent till you leave the next morning, you'll not speak a single word", he also said that "The one who remains silent will be the winner".

e) What did Preet say when candle was out?

Ans. Preet said, "Oh no! The candle is out".

f) Who were four good friends?

Ans. Ali, Raj, Sam and Preet were four good friends.

Chapter 2: Good Deeds

Introduction:- We do two types of work (a) Good work (b) Bad work

Today we'll talk about good works/good deeds. If we are listening to our parents, Teachers, or elder or we do our duties properly then we do good work Are you doing this? Some good deed doers are there in your book page no.5 draw in your copy and write as it is given in the book. In this chapter all chart you have to feel by yourself.

Answer these questions:-

1) Why have the children's pictures been put up on the class bulletin board?

Ans. The children's pictures have been 'put up on the class bulletin board because they have done good work.

2) Are the children in the poster happy or sad?

Ans. The children in the poster are happy.

3) Why they are happy?

Ans. They are happy because they satisfied with their work.

4) Are you doing some good works home? If yes then list them.

Ans. Write answer by yourself.

Chapter 3: The Naughty T-Shirt

Introduction:- In this chapter three like you there were three T-shirt with different colour blue, pink and yellow. Among three pink was very naughty for his naughtiness it was punished.

Answer the following questions:-(note: everybody must copy down)

1) What naughty things does T-shirt do?

Ans. The naughty T-shirt did not wanted to hang in the sun an off he flies.

2) Who punishes T-shirt?

Ans. Mr. wind punishes T-shirt.

3) What does T-shirt do in the end?

Ans. At the end he breaks the rule and started blowing in air instead of hanging.

4) How old little Joe was ?

Ans. Little Joe was six years old.

5) Was he listening to their parent?

Ans. No, he was not listening to their parent.

6) What did his parent were saying to him?

Ans. Their parent were saying to him, "Joe, will you please listen, lad?"